Inspired by agepbiz's Xbox Minimalist Controller Stand(<https://www.printables.com/model/449970-minimalistic-xbox-controller-stand>), and not being able to find one for the PS5, I decided to learn some new skills and create my own.

I have two different versions right now, and I'm sure they could each use some work. The first is wider and better silhouettes the controller, but it takes up a lot of desk space, so I made a smaller one. They both have spaces for 8x3 mm non-skid stickers. If you make one yourself, tell me what you think. Improvements, or even just a thumbs up!
