This is the vintage version of the Raven Microcybernetics logo, I made a vector of it as I like the aesthetic of this older version and the original image from the game manuals is low res. Here is that SVG along with an STL made from it that prints clean. The SVG isn't the highest quality but I did clean it up a bit. Would make an excellent piece of desk or wall art, or you can turn it into a computer badge if you have a printer that can handle super fine resolutions. (Scale appropriately for your use.)

This content is fan art and I do not hold or claim any copyright over it.

Edit 5/4/23: Fixed STL file
