Summary

Replacement wheel for large Pelican/Hardigg cases (original bearings)

One of my case's wheels wore out and lost the rubber wheel exterior, and I wanted a clean replacement that reused the bearings.

This replaces the entire wheel, not just the rubber shell.

I printed this in PLA+

I intend on trying it out in TPU if it breaks (or someone can try that first and comment)

First model I'm putting out there; feedback appreciated and the .step is included.
