The top of my cheap dicer bought on Amazon (branded as "Lyizci") broke after the 3rd use (link amazon <https://www.amazon.ca/Vegetable-Chopper-Mandoline-Container-Choppers/dp/B09NLS4B51> not affiliate, just as a ref to see which model I'm talking about).

Since the OG part is a thin lid, it broke next the square shape where you put the blades.

So here's a replacement to be printer in full 11mm height to give rigidity around the square.

Need to test in the long run but seem to do the job
