Admit it, you've always wanted to print your own Toilet Paper Sheep but were too embarrassed. Allow me to bring you all the fun minus any embarrassment with this Paper Towel Sheep remix instead.

Printing notes:

I've oriented the files in the manner I recommend they be printed so that no supports are needed anywhere. For the body, I strongly recommend a 10mm brim and zero infill (extra passes create extra vibration).

Oh and you can still recycle the sheep face if making a TP version after all (it's a slightly smoother model and about 10% larger than the original).
