This is a popsocket stand with a huge base to give it as much stability as possible. I wanted something that the kids couldn't knock over easily and also something which would be stable on a mattress.

It is a bit of a niche solution but could be useful to someone else.

Print Settings

Printer Brand:

Prusa

Printer:

I3 MK3S

Rafts:

No

Supports:

No

Resolution:

0.3

Infill:

20%

Filament: Prusament PLA Grey

Notes:

Material and print settings shouldn't make much difference. I'd suggest 20% infill or more so that the base is as heavy as possible so that it increases the stability even further.
