Summary

This is to provide a lid for the filament box this remixes that still exposes the swatch colors

Tags: lid swatch

This is a lid for the box this remakes. It has a viewing window so you can use without opening the box. Also has a second file for a box labeled “running low” so as you get low on colors you can move them to another box to make sure to re-order and not to present them as options for larger prints
