Description:

These are some kitchen towel holders with plant motifs and an odd one out, with the “funny” leaf and a fairly phallic looking hanger shaft.

These are plant motif hangers with an odd one out, we have multiple installed in our kitchen, and only one of the “funny” ones, it is always great to witness when someone notices.

The design is such that most kitchen utensils can also be hung from these.

The hangers are double-sided taped onto any surface in the kitchen/ bathroom. Pattex FIX double-sided tape works fantastic.

There is the potential to insert an M2 screw in the back as well for structural rigidity.
