These are 2 Parts, print them both with the outside face down.

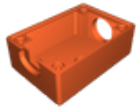

Screw holes in the bottom part should be wide enough for a 3mm screw to pass freely, and the top parts is narrow enough to cut a 3mm thread into.

In the top are 2 thin sections, the rectangle is for the socet to fit, you can paint some acrylic paint in that window to make it look better. The other is a one layer windows for the Activity LED.
