I needed to house a Shelly 1 within a ceiling rose and it just wouldn't fit.

Rather than buying a deeper section ceiling rose, I designed this with a mount.

It housed a Shelly1 fine and worked a treat.

You may want to test the threads to mtn your printer. If needed, you can always print the mount a percentage or two smaller.

Notes:

Probably print well with a larger layer height but I went with 0.2 height and a 0.4 nozzle, with a couple of sidewalls.
