The Bambu Lab P1P name plate is a sleek and stylish accessory designed to enhance the look of your device without the need for an AMS unit to print. This name plate features a clean and minimalist design, showcasing the iconic Bambu Lab logo and model name. Its easy-to-print format ensures hassle-free installation, making it a perfect addition to personalize your P1P device. Elevate your gadget's aesthetics with this elegant name plate, exclusively from Bambu Lab.

Simply Change Filaments at the first layer you see the protruding text, and you're good to go.

I used double sided tape to apply the name plate to the plastic.

May Require glue depending on your printer tolerances.
