Part of my State College PA bar signs collection. I made these on my Prusa Mini, so to have the color changes, I did a filament swap for each layer.

Bill Pickle's was my favorite bar in college and I found myself there way more than I should have been. Waited in line after every game even in the rain as well as the lines for country night. This was based on the bar sign out front (picture below). This was the first one I made in the collection, but somehow turned out as one of the best. It is very simplified, conveys the message.

The color order is blue-black-copper-red-yellow
