Both variants are usable with the original parts (toe, ankle).

- They are impractical
- DUMMY may not be able to stand properly in them (improved in v2.x)
- There are only a few moments when such boots make sense
- BUT they look hot
- And that's why they will be downloaded
- Like in real life...

As already said, way too realistic ;)

Print with supports and brim @0.15mm or less layer height.

Have fun!
