This is a table/box organizer for Lanterns The Harvest Festival. They work well in the box (extra space) and on the table to facilitate easy setup and play. Made so that everything can easily be printed on a 150mm x 150mm print bed.

There are "shoes" for the tiles, cards and dedications. A simple box (with a curved bottom so you can get those pesky bits out) will hold the favors and the first player token (for storage).

Enjoy!

Pretty pleased wit this design.

Works well on the table, and good for storage in the box. I might cut the dedications notch out a little more (to show the number better).
