Looking for a fun holiday print this season? Be like the muffin man and bake up a tray of articulating gingered cookies!

They're super easy to print! Print the base in brown and swap out filament on the last couple of layers to show the frosted details.

Two versions are are available. Ornament and not ornament. Tag us on Tiktok & Instagram @overture3d @overture3dfilament

Happy Printing!

Notes

1. Use the pause function in your slicer or multicolor printing with AMS

2. Joints have 0.2mm tolerances and print well on Ender 3 and X1C. If your joints are fused, adjust printer settings to compensate - or break those joints with a little force
