Bought these rings for showing conditions when playing D&D, but they had a shit box so i made one myself.

be careful with supports, i print this upside down to be able to have logo in different colour. But support really likes to stick to hard to top surface so it gets scuffed getting it off. Also make sure it is not too spaced apart then you can get a bumpy top, which looks bad.

The dnd logo i took from somewhere but i dont remember where.
