Wanted some dice for my car. Made my own chaos themed. They weren't made for a game so if you can come up with one to go with them have at it. They are 19mm Vegas sized dice but with the bronzefill the 20% infill makes them fairly weighty. I tumbled them for about 10 hours with a handful of tiny screws for post processing as well as a quick salt and vinegar bath to add a very slight bit of corrosion.
