Update: I had to correct the eyeballs. They shouldn't cause any issues now, if the model gets hollowed out.

Im sorry for any inconvenience

My first design and print.

The sculpture was made in Blender with a follow along tutorial by Grant Abbitt on youtube.

Tutorial was making a caricature of a human male head.

I don't know why mine isn't looking that way X D.

I used no inspiration or any reference (except for the horns).
