Summary

Hi. i been looking for same way to convert my first used pla spool. Could not find anything suitable so made my own.

Recently there was offer with creality filament i think on amazon. Two spools under 20 euros. i suspect many bought it. So here you go. Lets turn those spools in to storage boxes. It was my first spool ever used. On my first ever printer. Imagine how dummy i'm. Plese forgive me if something goes wrong. Will upload some pictures when ready.
