Summary

This was an RPG clamp that went on the narrower diameter bakelight portion of the RPG.

This is one of two clamps that I made to fit the narrower diameter bakelight portion of a prop RPG. There is also a large clamp STL in my designs that goes on the wider portion of the bakelight section of the RPG.

Printed with PLA at a 0.2 layer height, no supports needed really.

The clamp is secured with a M3 screw and washer.
