I needed a stand for displaying P1lotz's dragon recorders, so I made one. ...&made it to look like the dragon is breathing out fire!

Either printed in grey, primed, and painted; or printed in red filament. I've done both, and each turned out just fine. I used 3 walls, 35% infill, and .3 layer height.

Red filament print looks cool if you hollow it out and put a deconstructed mini LED tea light candle in it.
