Just a fan work and a realization of an old dream I had when I was a kid to build a big 'ol army of spacefaring space nuns from 40kya in the future. These sisters love battle, that's for sure!

Some backstory for this one:

My space nun army is turning into a full-on crusade led by an inquisitor.

Inquisitor Katharya is the leader of the Shepherd's Crusade, a cathedral ship warband of sisters from the Order of Our Martyred Lady who got sucked into a warp storm, only to be deposited 70,000 light years from Terra. Now, lost somewhere beyond and between the Ghoul Stars and the Segmentum Obscurus, Inquisitor Katharya's Crusade is slowly making its way home while freeing any worlds they can. They rescue and incorporate allies where and when they can, so the crusade now contains a medley of imperial units and the lowly masses who have chosen to ally with the Inquisitor's crusade in the hopes of someday seeing Holy Terra once again.

Seemed like most of the Adepta ladies you can print are resin only, and that just won't do for us old farts tinkering on FDM printers still. This one was printed on an Ender 3!
