Vikings? In the Aegean? During the Peloponnesian War? Madness! (This faction is just for fun.)

Ortus Novae: Tirreme is a modification to the Ortus Novae rules that will allow you to conduct massive tabletop armada battles using ancient Greek warships (and now, Vikings!) that you've assembled (or printed) yourself. Using the same quick and frantic rule set as the core game of Ortus Novae, you can simulate clashes between massive hordes of triremes, biremes, pentecounters and quadremes without getting bogged down by spreadsheets, arcane rule loopholes or unnecessary bookkeeping.
