I decided I needed a temple-esque dungeon entrance to go along with my personal Meepleverse kit, so I designed this one and I'm making it free to download here on Thingiverse. Also included is one of my hero meeples, similar to some of the heroes you can find over at my website called (Punkin' Figs) [www.punkinfigs.com]. Requires no supports, and probably no rafts. Filament I used in the print is a marble PLA for the entrance and just your standard Overture Red for the figure.

If you aren't familiar with DutchMogul's Meepleverse, you can find it on (Ill Gotten Games' Patreon page) [<https://www.patreon.com/illgottengames/posts>]

It's amazing stuff, and it's the only terrain set I use (it and compatible bits) as I really dig minimalism in tabletop dungeons and board games.
