A batch of spectral spirits or elementals for your RPG games!

I printed these on rafts, but without supports. You can probably print them without a raft if you've got your settings dialed in real precisely. These miniatures are sized for Meepleverse and for the latest version of Pocket Tactics. They're sized at 4mm thickness (old version of Meepleverse) so when you print, if you're using the new standard, you'll want to increase the mm height by one on the Z-axis in your slicing program to make everything the same.

If you aren't familiar with DutchMogul's Meepleverse, you can find it on Ill Gotten Games' Patreon page: <https://www.patreon.com/illgottengames/posts>

. It's amazing stuff, and it's the only terrain set I use (it and compatible bits) as I really dig minimalism in tabletop dungeons and board games.
