Need a crew so you can boldly go where no one has gone before? You're in luck! This pack of meeples contains five different male and five different female officers you can print in three (or more) colors, for a total of at least thirty different crewmembers. Need a comprehensive security team? Print a bunch of phaser-rifle-wielding officers in red or gold and get into the action. Engineering team? Same thing, but favor tricorders and hand phasers. You can even run off a team of blue meeples to handle any medical emergency.

These meeples are compatible with meepleverse and print without supports, though I do use a raft. Whether you do or not is really up to your personal printing style.
