Not exactly multidimensional but still quite roomy, i sized it to hold new unsharpened pencils so the result is a bit on the big side.

Two compartments one in the leg for pens, pencils and general oblong stuff, another in the hat for dice, erasers, pencil sharpeners, bennies and the such, the hat has a small flat area on the top to become a stable-ish bowl when flipped.

Make sure to have clean screws or they can lock together, movements become smoother after a few openings and closings
