Introducing our adorable new creation: the Articulated Kitty Keychain! 🐱

Step into a world of charm and playfulness with our meticulously crafted 3D printed kitty companion, perfect for cat lovers of all ages. Now available in a convenient keychain format, you can carry your feline friend with you wherever you roam!

This files offers versatility with two options: one featuring a keychain hole and one without, tailored to your preferences. Achieve optimal results by printing at a 0.2 mm layer height. However, rest assured that even at a 0.4 mm layer height, the irresistible charm of our kitty remains fully intact, as evidenced by the accompanying visuals.

Unleash your creativity with the potential for multi-color printing, allowing you to add a splash of personality to your kitty's eyes, nose, or whiskers. But the excitement doesn't stop there - our kitty's articulated design adds an extra layer of amusement, making it a delightful companion that springs to life with every gentle touch.

Download now and embark on a DIY keychain project that promises countless moments of joy and creativity!

PS: Our kitty adores lounging in the living room and playing with wool, so let's whisk away on an adventure!
