Introducing 3D Printed Painting Stand, the ultimate accessory for hobbyists and model enthusiasts. Designed to securely hold miniature car shells, this stand ensures stability and precision while you paint using airbrushes or spray cans. Whether you're a seasoned painter or a beginner, this stand will enhance your painting experience and deliver professional results.

Key Features:

- Sturdy Construction: Made from high-quality, durable 3D printed material, the stand provides a stable base to prevent any wobbling or shifting during painting.
- Adjustable Holders: Equipped with adjustable clamps and holders, the stand can accommodate various sizes and shapes of miniature car shells, ensuring a snug fit.

- 360-Degree Rotation: The stand features a rotating platform that allows you to spin the car shell 360 degrees, giving you easy access to all angles for a flawless paint job.
- Elevated Design: The elevated platform keeps your car shell suspended, minimizing contact points and reducing the risk of smudges or fingerprints.
- Easy Assembly: Designed for easy assembly and disassembly, the stand can be quickly set up or taken apart for convenient storage when not in use.
- Compact and Lightweight: Its compact size and lightweight design make it easy to transport and store, perfect for hobbyists with limited workspace.
- Compatible with Airbrushes and Spray Cans: Whether you prefer airbrushing for detailed work or spray cans for quick coverage, this stand is versatile and compatible with both methods.

Usage Instructions:

1. Assemble the Stand: All you need is a M4x20mm screw, a Nylock nut, and a 5mm OD by 25mm spring.
2. Mount the Car Shell: Adjust the clamps to fit your miniature car shell securely.
3. Start Painting: Use the 360-degree rotation feature to paint all angles of your car shell effortlessly.
4. Let it Dry: Allow the paint to dry thoroughly before removing the car shell from the stand.

Enhance your painting precision and efficiency with our 3D Printed Miniature Car Shell Painting Stand. Get yours today and take your miniature car painting to the next level!
