Summary

SOME of the Halo Infinite weapons charms that I made for myself and wanted to share, assemble at your own risk

These are just a few of the weapons charms from Halo Infinite, I've included the charm itself and modeled a little magnet clip to go with it. You should be able to fit a 5mm magnet into the piece and magnetize it to whatever you like, but I'd recommend just mounting it to the prop with adhesive or steel stick or something (I was originally just doing this for myself and figured I'd share what I had with the community so don't be mad if I didn't finish adding everything!) Scaling should be close, but you may need to adjust at your own discretion
