introducing the dick diver print between 0.08 and 0.12 with supports prints 40 - 60% infill Gyrode you will need to add make a pause to add the weight in i use split sinkers i crush yes these can be for a laugh but are also functional i also use 4 walls to make strong enough for hooks and bits i print in pla or petg as there biodegradable and not toxic to environment but can also be printed in abs i will update with a photo once i have had the chance to go for a fish and catch something i have a few more models of lure like there that are functional but funny i also print on bambu lab A1
