Summary

based on the nice, solid model of @LambertW_371596 only slightly more room for both the large cards and the small cards.

Toys & Games > Board Games

I don't own the game myself, but a friend of mine told me that the box needs a bit more headroom if you sleeve the cards. Since the model of @LambertW_371596 is very nice and clean, I decided to remix it, only altering the height for both the large cards and the small cards. I haven't got the chance to print it yet, but if I do, I'll upload a photo.

I won't upload the lid of this box, since I didn't alter that. You can find that at the page of the original model: <https://www.printables.com/model/364833-storage-box-for-here-to-slay-and-expansions>
