Summary

A keychain of my favourite CRRC 01900 series train type.

Fashion > Other Fashion Accessories

I am into trains and this train type caught my eyes. Launched in 2022, this red line train in Boston is made by CRRC, operating on the famous red line on the MBTA network. I recommend printing the models on a larger scale, because i can't make the difference between the Tinkercad size and the IRL size. Hope you like it!
