History

Final mission at Narendra III

In 2344, the Enterprise responded to a distress call from the Klingon outpost on Narendra III, which was under attack by the Romulan Star Empire. When the Enterprise arrived at the outpost, she was engaged by four Romulan warbirds. The ship was hopelessly outnumbered, and suffered major damage to her warp nacelles and external hull, with all but 125 crew members being killed.

During the firefight, a temporal rift was created. The ship entered and almost instantly emerged from it, before she was ultimately destroyed.
