Summary

Yet another soap dish. Inspired by Japanese one. Let soap be always dry and avoid proliferation or bacteria.

Watery counters are a problem of your past!
This super handy soap dish is a stylish addition to any sink or shower. It will also leave your counters, and your bar soap, bone-dry and ready to use. Leave it on the lip of your sink to allow the sloped base to trickle water back into the sink basin. The curved surface keeps soap from slipping and sliding all around. To keep clean, simply run under warm water to let any residue wash away.
